DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 3, 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Akiyama et al. (4,399,087).

4. Akijama et al. '087 teach a process for producing foamed articles, comprising storing resin particles saturated with an inert gas in a container at a pressure of 1.4-2.5 kg/cm² and at 20° C to prevent shrinkage due to escaping gas, prior to molding (col. 2, lines 12-58, col. 5, lines 1-19, col. 6, lines 9-35).

5. Claims 1-3 and 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Arai (2001/0014709).

Art Unit: 1724

6. Arai '709 teach a foam-molding process, comprising holding a pretreated pellet-like resin saturated with carbon dioxide in an inert gas permeation unit for a predetermined period of time at a pressure of 0.5-6 MPa and a temperature below the thermal deformation temperature of the resin (paragraph 1, claims 1, 5, 6).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either one of Akiyama et al. '087 or Arai '709.

9. Either one of Akiyama et al. '087 or Arai '709 discloses all of the limitations of the claim except that the gas saturation amount after storage is 0.1-0.4 wt%. Absent a proper showing of criticality or unexpected results, it is submitted that the gas saturation level is a parameter that would have been routinely optimized by one having skill in the art in order to optimize the foamed product formation.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 4-6, 11 and 12 are allowed.

11. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest the claimed storing method wherein the ambient pressure and temperature conditions are defined by the equations in claim 4, or wherein 0.1-1.5 wt% of supercritical carbon dioxide are allowed to saturate into a palletized solid resin material in combination with the other recited conditions.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The additional references listed on the attached PTO-892 form disclose foam injection systems.
